

Substance: Strontium Chromate
CAS Number: 7789-06-2

This product is an article, without intended release of a chemical substance, under the REGULATION (EC) No 1907/2006 OF THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND OF THE COUNCIL concerning the Registration, Evaluation, Authorization and Restriction of Chemicals (REACH). This safe use document satisfies the REACH Article 33 Duty to communicate information on substances in articles.

1. Use/Exposure Scenarios

Use	Stable under normal use; no expected hazardous emissions. An exposure evaluation must be conducted to define appropriate engineering and administrative controls.
Toxicological Information	Strontium Chromate is a carcinogen ¹ .
Assembly / Disassembly	These activities may cause some very minor transfer of residue onto unprotected skin. It is recommended that Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) be used when handling, assembling or disassembling articles.
Mechanical Removal	Mechanical removal such as grinding, buffing or media blasting techniques may generate hazardous particulates that must be disposed of in accordance with local regulation. Any mechanical removal should be done with proper ventilation and the appropriate PPE in place.
Stripping: Chemical Removal	Stripping via chemical techniques may generate hazardous waste that must be disposed of in accordance with local regulations. Any chemical removal should be done with proper ventilation and appropriated PPE in place.

2. Exposure Control Information

Engineering Controls	Use adequate general or local exhaust ventilation when performing mechanical or chemical operations.
Personal Protective Equipment	Skin: Protective clothing to avoid contact with exposed skin may include coveralls, gloves and head and face covering. Disposable, single use protective clothing is recommended. Eyes: Safety glasses or goggles are recommended. Respiratory protection: An exposure assessment should be conducted to determine the level of respiratory protection warranted for a task. All elements of a respiratory protection program shall comply with local regulations.
